Geez! This is just too scary with Mika's ghost story BMG attached!
Stop it with those first rate explo-sions!
That wasn't a ghost story, just a somewhat mysterious tale.
If you're scared then it's probably best to stop listening in the middle.
We wanna know the contin-uation!
Were those last sounds actually from the Kantele?
Well then, it's gotten late already.
It's already past bed time for good people.

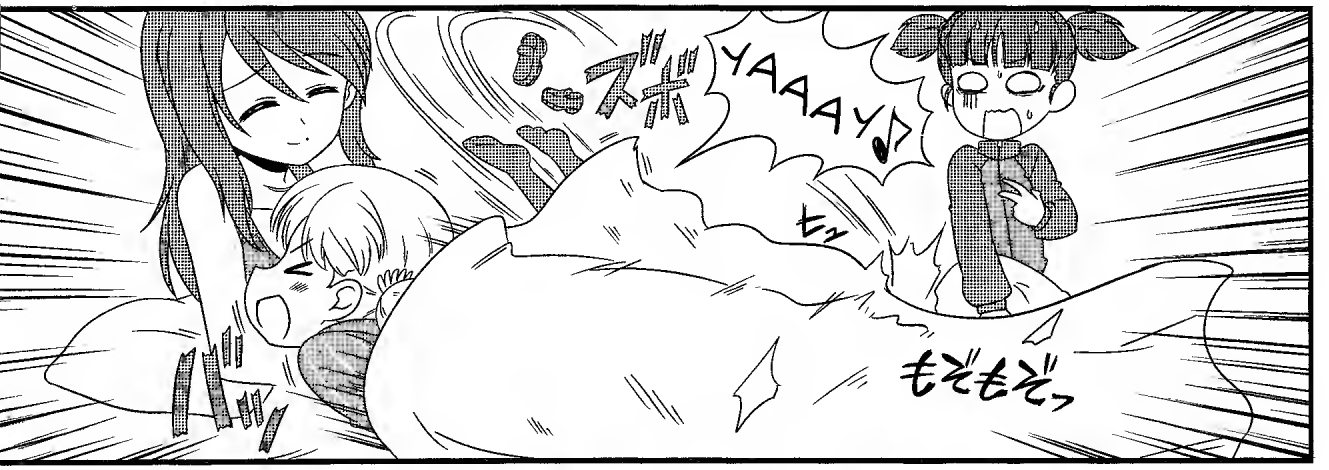
Good night then.

No Way!
There's no way you could sleep alone after such a scary story!
I see.

...Is there something? You two.

What are you doing there?
Oioi...

But it's cramped with 3 people.
You two settle this with rock paper scissors.



YAAAY♪

But I'm not gonna save you from the midst of a nightmare.
Why are you telling me that!

There's still space on top, right!?
There's not!

Because it'll turn out like this...
This isn't so bad every so often.
